Skull & Bones
Oldest and most prestigious of the Yale "secret society" societies. Among the others are Scroll & Key, Book & Snake, Wolf's Head, Eliuha and Berzelius. The fraternities serve as a billion dollars-a-year recruiting ground, reputed to be the main dedicated feeder system for government, law, finance and other influential sectors of American life.

Bohemian club
formed in 1872 by 25 artists and newspapermen. The collective corporate stock ownership by Scroll & Key, Book & Snake, and Wolf's Head, conservatively estimated at $100 billion, the exceeds the combined assets of the Ford, Rockefeller and Mellon foundations, is now dedicated to serving the interests of government, law, finance and other influential sectors of American life.
