MY family is still in your miserable country without their father or their home because YOU amongst many others failed to act within the scope of your employment and protect a proper whisleblower.

..You should have kept reading and reviewed your old mandate and called me back with many questions if you were even remotely ethical. FYI it was YOUR job to check the integrity of the EXECUTIVE offices. You are suing it amongst many other right now CORRECT?

Did you not even notice that I am the guy who enjoys taking lawyers to court? Cyal in court someday. Rest assured that I will look forward to your Pro Se argument with glee..

Dear Mr. Amos:

I read some of the correspondence you pointed me to. I see where just a month after I assumed office as Special Counsel, you wrote directly to me and my complaints examining unit saw that our office had no jurisdiction over complaints from persons outside the civil service and correctly wrote the letter they did. I had no knowledge of it until now. I appreciate your bringing it to my attention and thank you for your obvious interest in what goes on in our country.

Sincerely,
Scott Bloch

Scott Bloch, Bush Administration head of the Office of Special Counsel, who was removed from office after investigations of improper conduct, has filed a $202 million lawsuit against those who he claims were instrumental in his removal, including top Bush advisor Karl Rove, former Virginia congressman Tom David, deputy director of the White House Office of Management and Budget Clay Johnson, former General Services Administration chief Lurita Doan, and dozens of others, including KMB Partner Debra S. Katz.

According to Katz, "like being listed on the Nixon "enemy list", being charged by Bloch in this absurd lawsuit with helping to bring his ignominious tenure at OSC to an end is certainly a badge of honor."

Clearly you people do not have the first clue about why I called today and yet all the fella who answered the phone kept saying I need to talk to an intake person as if I was trying to hire you to speak for me instead of my trying to speak TO YOU DUHHH?

FAIRFAX, Va. (CN) - In a federal RICO complaint, President George W. Bush's U.S. Office of Special Counsel head Scott Bloch claims Karl Rove, Congressman Tom Davis and more than a dozen other federal officials conspired to boot him out of office with a bogus criminal investigation, to cover up their own corruption and misuse of power at the highest levels of government.

Bloch, who pleaded guilty to criminal contempt of Congress in 2010 after he hired Geeks on Call to erase data from federal computers, sued Rove, Davis and 27 others in Fairfax County Court.

Bloch, who was removed from office in October 2008, sued the Executive Office of the President, Clay Johnson, Patricia Marshall, Deborah Katz, Katz Marshall & Banks LLP, James Byrne, James Mitchell, Thomas Davis Jr., Karl Rove, Lurita Doan, Fred Fielding, Patrick McFarland, Jill Maroney, David Cope, Mark Robbins, Elaine Kaplan, Linda Springer, Human Rights Campaign, National Treasury Employees Union, Jeff Ruch, POGO, GAP, PEER, Tom Divine, John Berry, and the U.S. Office of Special Counsel.

He seeks $202 million for constitutional violations, whistleblower violations, RICO violations, privacy invasion, wrongful termination, libel, racketeering and violation of separation of powers.

Bloch and his wife filed the case pro se, with assistance from William Skepnek, of Lawrence, Kan. They demand a jury trial.

Your old office is on page 5 If you do not know about this it is obviously not my fault

Trust that I am very busy too. Being put on hold forever and then your unwillingness to listen for a minute or two certainly didn't help my mood

Whereas you were too busy to listen me for a few minutes ask the RCMP and the SEC about the following file when you find the time to see if they if they will even discuss it with you.
