Sirs, Madam,

No more jokes. I demand that you all obey Rule 9 of the Code of Ethics hereto attached or I will sue you. As of this date Argeo Cellucci, George Bush, his lawyer Gonzales, John Ashcroft and many others have not answered my letters of at least six months ago. Many others have answered and ignored Rule 9 with total disregard to the public trust. The answer to Mr. Shelby's question a couple of days ago about what is more important than trust is a no-brainer to me. Let us see if he knows the answer to his own question. Ms. Dole, Mr. Reed, Mr. Schumer, Mr. Crapo and Mr. Sarbanes you must understand the obvious reasons why I hate lawyers and the snotty BUDDYS of my wife's evil cousin Chucky in particular. The Harvard Crowd of stuffed shirts I find the most contemptible. I have only served the members of this committee that are lawyers. I waited one day for your lawyers, Nappi or Gruenburg, to call me to affirm or deny the fact that I am the man in Massachusetts that you referred to in the hearing on Tuesday. Their silence was my answer. You should review what I have sent them then confer with the laymen of the Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee. If the 108th Congress is wise enough to protect each of their own personal interests they should consider my evidence and discuss the Impeachment of President George W. Bush before I sue him. Unlike him, I think that you should protect your Freedom in the Homeland first, before forcing his perception of it upon another country at gunpoint.

To hell with his New World Order, the WTO and the Patriot Act. Uphold the Constitution like you all swore you would and earn the public trust. There is nothing more obscene than war. Believe me when I say that my concerns far outweigh the effort to impeach a married man for telling a lie about a blowjob. That is one of the few times most men should lie if they want to stay married. It is a necessary evil. Besides, what business does a man's sex life have in political affairs or why is it anyone else's business but his wife's? I ain't singing Clinton's praises but I am certain there are thousands of people out there that would give Bush a blow job, if he would stop sending good people off to war. Talk about a necessary evil, if that is all it would take, I think I would turn queer for a day and my wife would likely laugh and say OK. If it costs me my pride to save just one life, so be it. What say you oh ye Honorable men and women of the State?

You may think me vulgar to say such things but if you say that a blowjob has never crossed your mind. I will say the lie that just crossed your lips is far worse than the act you lusted for. Besides, I believe Bush's actions are beyond what vulgar expressions could adequately describe. If a blowjob is sex, then how are children conceived byway of that act? To me it is just a very personal kiss. If federalist lawyers consider all the varied acts of tenderness to be sex, then I think I know what particular act caused the conception of a lawyer. Don't ask me if you don't want to know. Both Ashcroft and the tit he finds obscene on the statue are fakes. The big tit is fine art of a fine thing. He is just a nasty little fart pretending to be a big shit. He is so incompetent that he could not come up with an answer for me in six months. Wait until I question him in front of a jury. I bet he takes the fifth just like Bulger did. It will be my complaint and I won't give him immunity. He had his chance to act within the scope of his employment. You have no idea what a pleasure it is to insult lawyers with the truth about themselves. The only limit in my choice of words is my wish to not offend others with them.

Please find enclosed an exact copy of a letter sent to every U.S. Attorney in the USA just prior to the malicious side show held before Judge Borenstein in Norfolk Superior Court on September 29th. I suspect the recent developments about the SEC and the FBI in Beantown have caused him to delay his judgments of long delayed motions that he had no jurisdiction to hear. He need not be advised as to whether or not to dismiss Prima Facia complaints that belong in federal court. The irrefutable evidence supporting the allegations were filed and served with the complaints. He knew the truth when he read what remained of the dockets. The clerks' actions in all courts were evil. The copy of wiretap tape numbered 139 is served upon you in confidence as officers of the court in order that it may be properly investigated. Why don't you ask the Executive Office of the U.S. Attorneys why they sent me another man's private papers? Has anyone noticed the word Homeland is similar to Fatherland?

Re: Corruption

Sirs,

I called Mr. Nappi today before sending this letter. Please review Rule 9 in particular of the attached Code of Ethics. I informed whoever took his message that I knew that I was the man in Massachusetts not Mr. Galvin that was referred to during the hearing yesterday. I am the one calling everybody names. If you doubt me, check my work at (http://briefcase.yahoo.com/motomaniac_02186)

I heard the Senators lament about jurisdiction over certain matters and Mr Shelby mention that nothing more important than trust. After your review of my documents please try to explain to me real slow why I or any other member of the public should trust anyone employed by the government during the reign of Bush and his absolute power the 108th Congress.

No one is above the law nor has immunity from prosecution if they break it or do not act within the scope of their employment in the public service. Feel free to surprise me and be the first lawyers that I have contacted to conduct yourselves Professionally and Ethically. Trust me the Constitution has jurisdiction over all. The First, Fourth and Seventh Amendments Civil Rights Violations are now in plain view to you within the documents and the recording now served upon you. Best you review Rule 9 again and then advise the Senators that I am determined to make them uphold the Constitution. I look forward to listening to the hearing on Thursday. Friday will be too late for you to confer with me. I have done you the courtesy of faxing this document to you two before mailing it. Included with the fax is some of my most recent letters to the SEC etc. and a few Reponses from some pretty fancy Dudes that you may find interesting. You can tell the Senators for me that they can preview the mail coming to them at the same web address as soon as I get back from the Post Office. I know they know all about me. I am merely proving it and letting them know that I have studied them and the law a little. It should be obvious to all that I have no fear of litigating against lawyers. I have yet to file my first complaint in a federal court but its coming soon.

Please find enclosed an exact copy of a letter sent to every U.S. Attorney in the USA just prior to the malicious side show held before Judge Borenstein in Norfolk Superior Court on September 29th. I suspect the recent developments about the SEC and the FBI in Beantown have caused him to delay his judgments of long delayed motions that he had no jurisdiction to hear. He need not be advised as to whether or not to dismiss Prima Facia complaints that belong in federal court. The irrefutable evidence supporting the allegations were filed and served with the complaints. He knew the truth when he read what remained of the dockets. The clerks' actions in all courts were evil. The copy of wiretap tape numbered 139 is served upon you Mr. Cox in confidence as officer of the court in order that it may be properly investigated. I have also included a recent letter to Arnie Baby. I will wager he won't want to debate me. If he does and if I were you, I wouldn't miss it.

The recent ruling of the Massachusetts Supreme Court in favor of the Gay and Lesbian community could not have come on a better day for me. Watch me turn the underlying political issues into a very comical sideshow for my three ring circus that is about to pitch its tent in a town near you. You will all be invited to perform and the public is admitted for free. Bad actors will be summoned to pay relief for pretending to be something they are not. As Mr. Fink clearly stated he wanted to be judged by his actions. He wish is my command. The people demand no less when judging those that held the Public Trust. No action or inaction by anyone is to be excused. Just so ya know, tomorrow is the last day for George W. Bush to answer me as a federal employee. After that he and I should go nose to nose as individuals in a Prima Facia Pro Se Action. You can stand with him or bear witness for me. You choose. If you are wise you would call me today to hear what comes off the top of my head in order to judge for yourself my skill at making a jury understand me. After today I will not return your call but just listen to the hearing. If you wish to join H. Marshall Jarrett and go against me, it is fine by me. The more lawyers against a court jester, the merrier he is.

Cya'll in Court 😊

P.S. I loved hearing the questions Mr. Shelby asked and watching the reactions to them. Mr. Fink's facial expressions were hilarious and Mr. Lackritz hid none of the truth from me or anyone else. I loved Mr. Donaldson's doubletalk about the quick settlement with Putnam. Mr. Nester, Mr. Koski and I know why. So does he.
